Guest Turner—Lonnie Bott

I grew up on a cattle ranch in Montana, and learned how to turn wood over 30 years ago. I got into it more seriously in the last few years, now trying to turn a little every day. I mainly turn smaller projects such as pens, spin tops, and bowls that are made up of some of the more exotic woods of the world. I have also found that turning different manmade products can be quite fascinating.

DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS

Lowcountry Turners and the Savannah Cultural Arts Gallery have joined together for a Woodturning Gallery Show. Members are encouraged to participate by providing turnings to be on display from March 4—April 1, 2016. Please notify Roy Yarger if you plan to participate in the show. Turnings need to be ready for the gallery by February 29th for installation.

President's Corner

Our first big show of 2016 will be at the Savannah Cultural Affairs Gallery located at 9 West Henry Street. The show dates of March 4th thru April 1st are quickly approaching. This will be a great opportunity to show Savannah what the Club is all about. Be sure to bring your pieces with your City of Savannah Cultural Affairs show form completely filled out to the next meeting or deliver your pieces and the form yourself to the Gallery by February 29th. We will need volunteers to assist on Friday, March 4th between 5—9pm at the Gallery open house. All artwork is to be picked up on Monday, April 4th.

Go to www.mavenmakers.com to learn more about this unique opportunity and new classes located at 415 West Boundary Street in Historic Savannah. Hours of Operation: Tues—Fri (noon—9pm) and Sat (9am—9pm)

Upcoming classes include—Introduction to Woodturning, Finishing, Turning Resins, Pepper Mills, Spinning Tops, Segmented Bowl/Platter and Baby Rattles
